INTRODUCTION

The Statistical Tables relating to Banks in India for the year 1951, which is the tenth in the series since its publication was taken over by the Reserve Bank in 1941, covers the banks functioning in the Indian Union, whether registered in the Indian Union or outside. The presentation of the statistics is generally on the same lines as in previous issues. The tables have been divided into two parts—Summary and Detailed. The Summary tables present a consolidated picture of the more important liabilities and assets of the several classes of banks. The details of the liabilities and assets of each individual bank are given in the Detailed tables. Figures have been revised wherever more recent data were available.

The following additions have been made to the Summary tables : Table 17 (i)—Advances of Banks According to Purpose, June 1949 to December 1951 ; Table 17(ii)—Advances of Banks According to Security, June 1949 to December 1951 ; Table 20—Advances of Scheduled Banks against Principal Commodities and Bullion, April 1950 to December 1951 ; Table 23—Deposits of Selected Scheduled Banks at Various Rates of Interest during 1951 and Table 31—Velocity of Circulation of Deposit Money, 1935 to 1951.

Explanatory Notes on the Tables

The banks included in the Statistical Tables have been classified as follows :—

(i) Reserve Bank of India,
(ii) Indian banks comprising :

(a) the Imperial Bank of India and other Indian scheduled banks,

(b) Indian non-scheduled banks, i. e., Indian joint stock banks other than those included in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, and
(c) Indian co-operative banks registered under the laws of the States where they are situated, and

(iii) Foreign banks comprising scheduled and non-scheduled banks, whose registered offices are located outside the Indian Union.

Banks which carry on the business of banking in any State to which the Reserve Bank of India Act extends and which (a) have paid-up capital and reserves of an aggregate, real or exchangeable, value of not less than Rs. 5 lakhs, (b) are companies as defined in Section 2(2) of the Indian Companies Act, 1913, or corporations or companies incorporated by or under any law in force in any place outside India and (c) satisfy the Reserve Bank that their affairs are not being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interest of their depositors, are eligible for inclusion in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, and when so included are known as scheduled banks.

There were only two scheduled banks with registered offices in Pakistan in 1947 and 1948 ; in 1946, the registered office of one of them was within the limits of the present Indian Union and that of the other within the present limits of Pakistan. Twelve scheduled banks, which had registered offices in Pakistan in 1946, shifted them subsequently to places in the Indian Union.

The non-scheduled banks have been divided into four classes : A2 banks or banks which have paid-up capital and reserves of Rs. 5 lakhs and above each, but which have not been included in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act ; B banks or banks each having paid-up capital and reserves between Rs. 1 lakh and Rs. 5 lakhs ; C banks or banks each having paid-up capital and reserves between Rs. 50,000 and Rs. 1 lakh ; and D Banks or banks each having paid-up capital and reserves of less than Rs. 50,000. A2 banks include several banks registered and working in the former Indian States which had not acceded to the Indian Union in respect of banking and had no branches in the Indian Union, and were, therefore, not eligible for inclusion in the Second Schedule. Non-scheduled banks included in the Tables comprise those which had been classified as banking companies under Section 277F of the Indian Companies Act and which, therefore, submitted monthly returns of their demand and time liabilities and cash balances under Section 277L of that Act, and those registered in the Indian States. From September 1948 to February 1949 the returns were submitted under the Banking Companies (Control) Ordinance, 1948 and subsequently under the Banking Companies Act, 1949. Data relating to D banks are shown only in the Summary tables.

Prior to March 1949, any company which used as part of its name the word 'bank', 'banker' or 'banking' was deemed to be, according to the Indian Companies Act, 1913, as amended in 1942, a banking company, irrespective of whether or not banking was its principal business. Under the Banking Companies Act, 1949, the business which a banking company may transact has been defined and minimum paid-up capital and reserves, varying with the geographical coverage of a banking company, have been prescribed. The minimum paid-up capital and reserves required of a banking company having only one office, situated outside the city of Bombay or Calcutta, has been fixed at Rs. 50,000. A banking company is required to use as part of its name the words 'bank', 'banker' or 'banking', and a non-banking company is prohibited from using any of these words in its name. The provision with regard to the name came into force on March 16, 1951 and the limitation with regard to capital became applicable on March 16, 1952.

Co-operative banks covered by this publication comprise State and central co-operative banks, and registered non-agricultural (urban) co-operative credit societies, with limited liability, each having minimum paid-up capital and reserves of Rs. 1 lakh. They are sub-divided into two classes, namely, A banks each with capital and reserves of Rs. 5 lakhs and above, and B banks each with capital and reserves ranging between Rs. 1 lakh and Rs. 5 lakhs.

Table 1 :—Liabilities and Assets of the Reserve Bank of India. From August 15, 1947 to June 30, 1948 the Reserve Bank of India functioned as the central bank for the Indian Union and Pakistan. The liabilities and assets relating to Pakistan for this period are given in brackets below the consolidated figures for the Indian Union and Pakistan. Notes in circulation since July 1, 1948 include India notes issued prior to Partition and held by the State Bank of Pakistan pending return to the Reserve Bank of India, and India notes returned from Pakistan and awaiting cancellation.

Table 2 :—Liabilities and Assets of the Imperial Bank of India. The liabilities and assets relate to the business of the bank both in the Indian Union and abroad. The figures of the offices of the bank for 1943 and earlier years include offices in Burma, for 1944 and 1945 they relate to undivided India and for 1946 and after to the Indian Union. For the years 1946 to 1951 the number of offices outside the Indian Union is indicated in brackets.

Table 3 :—Liabilities and Assets of Foreign Banks. The figures relating to exchange banks (banks incorporated outside the Indian Union and Pakistan) for 1945 and earlier years are as on the last Friday of each year, and for subsequent years as on the date of the balance sheet which, with one exception for the years 1946 to 1948, are as on December 31. For 1945 and earlier years statistics of current and time deposits not being available, the data on demand and time liabilities from returns under Section 42(2) of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, are taken to represent demand and time deposits ; for subsequent years statistics of deposits have been taken from the balance sheets of banks. The statistics of deposits from 1949 of 'other foreign banks' are as shown in their respective balance sheets prepared under Section 29(1) of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, and for earlier years were compiled from the statistics supplied by the banks or were estimated on the basis of available data.

Table 4(i) :—Liabilities and Assets of the Several Classes of Joint Stock Banks, 1950 and 1951. Table 4(i) shows details of liabilities and assets of joint stock banks as given in their balance sheets. For purposes of this table scheduled banks have been sub-divided into (i) Imperial Bank of India, (ii) major Indian scheduled banks, each with deposits of Rs. 25 crores and above, (iii) other Indian scheduled banks and (iv) foreign banks and non-scheduled banks which have been sub-divided according to paid-up capital and reserves, into A2, B, C and D classes as set out in a previous paragraph. In respect of cash balances, loans and advances, and investments, this table contains fuller details than the detailed tables or summary tables 5(ii), (iii), 10 and 11 which have been compiled from returns in a specified form ; in respect of deposits, 'current and contingency accounts' have been grouped together in Table 4(i) while in the detailed and summary tables 'contingency accounts' have been separated from 'current accounts' and have been grouped with 'other deposits' if they are in the nature of deposits or else under 'other liabilities'. Owing to changes in the form of the balance sheet, balances with the Imperial Bank of India which for the year 1950 were included under item 10(ii) 'balances with other banks in current accounts' have been grouped for 1951 under item 10(i) 'cash in hand and balances with the Reserve Bank of India and Imperial Bank of India'. Hence for items 10(i) and 10(ii) of this table, the figures for 1950 are not strictly comparable with those for 1951. In the case of banks to which the Banking Companies Act did not apply, and whose balance sheets consequently did not provide the details required for purposes of this table, the deficiency was made good from data contained in the returns referred to above.

Table 4(ii) :—Income, Expenditure and Distribution of Profits of the Several Classes of Joint Stock Banks, 1950 and 1951. Table 4(ii) gives details of income, expenditure and distribution of profits as given in the profit and loss account and the directors' report to the shareholders. Net profits shown in this table refer to profits prior to allocations for taxation and to reserves ; in the case of banks whose accounts shew such allocations the necessary adjustments have been made in the figures. The data regarding income, expenditure and distribution of profits relate, in most cases, to the full twelve months. In a few cases where the date of the balance sheet was changed to December in accordance with Section 29 of the Banking Companies Act, the data relate to less or more than twelve months. Information in respect of 'provident fund', 'local committee members' fees and allowances', and 'repairs to bank's property', which was shown separately in 1950, has been grouped under 'salaries and allowances', 'directors' fees and allowances' and 'depreciation on banks' property', respectively. The figures in this table differ from the figures in Table 8(i), (ii) and (iii) which relate to the earnings and expenses of the Indian scheduled banks, the exchange banks and the larger non-scheduled banks.

Table 5 (i), (ii) and (iii) :—Liabilities and Assets of Indian Joint Stock Banks. Table 5(i) relates to joint stock banks registered in undivided India and refers to the years ending 1945; and Table 5(ii) relates to joint stock banks having their registered offices in the Indian Union and refers to subsequent years. The figures for the year 1946 cover banks which transferred their registered offices from Pakistan to the Indian Union by December 31, 1947 and exclude banks which transferred their registered offices from the Indian Union to Pakistan by the same date.

Table 5 (iii), which refers to the years beginning with 1946, relates to banks included in Table 5 (ii) and gives separately statistics of their business in the Indian Union and their total business. The table excludes the business in the Indian Union of foreign banks. Some banks could not submit returns for the years 1946 and 1947 due to the non-availability of the necessary records ; certain other banks had suspended payments temporarily or were not functioning fully during these years. The data with regard to them were derived from the overall figures in their balance sheets, which were available for these years, and the detailed figures contained in a return for the nearest available date.

Table 6(i) :—Consolidated Position (Weekly) of Scheduled Banks for 1951. Table 6(i) is compiled from the weekly returns submitted by scheduled banks under Section 42(2) of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, and relates to their working in the Indian Union. From November 2, 1951, by virtue of an amendment to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, the form in which the returns are called for from banks contains the following additional data : 'balances with other banks in current account', 'money at call and short notice' and 'investments in government securities'. Upto November 2, 1951, 'money at call and short notice' and 'inland bills purchased' were grouped under 'advances' ; from that date the former is shown separately while the latter is included under 'inland bills discounted'. Investments in government securities include Treasury bills and Treasury Deposit Receipts.

Table 6(ii) :—Demand and Time Liabilities and Cash Balances of Non-scheduled Banks, 1938 to 1947. Table 6(ii) relates to undivided India including the former Indian States for the years ending 1946 and, thereafter, to the Indian Union including all States, whether they had acceded to the Indian Union with respect to banking or not. It is compiled mainly from the returns submitted under Section 277L of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 as amended in 1936, and in part from available returns submitted by banks in the former Indian States in terms of the laws applicable to banks in the respective States.

Table 6(iii) :—Liabilities and Assets in India of Banking Companies, 1948 to 1951. Table 6(iii) is compiled for part of the period (upto December 1948) from the returns submitted under Section 8(1) of the Banking Companies (Control) Ordinance, 1948, and for the rest of the period from the returns submitted under Section 27 (1) of the Banking Companies Act, 1949. It deals with the liabilities and assets of banking companies in the former Provinces of India and the former Indian States to which the Dominion laws in respect of banking were applicable. The Banking Companies Act, 1949, covered all Indian States, which had acceded to the Indian Union as respects banking and from March 18, 1950 it was extended to the whole of the Indian Union, except the State of Jammu and Kashmir. As the Banking Companies Act is applicable only to those banking companies which can be wound up under the Indian Companies Act, banks operating entirely in merged States and Part C States were included in this table as from January 1, 1950 and April 16, 1950, respectively, on which dates the Indian Companies Act was extended to these States. Although the Indian Companies Act became applicable to Part B States since April 1951, the Banking Companies Rules were not applicable to these States and hence the table does not include data of banks incorporated in and restricting their activities exclusively to Part B States. As the figures of liabilities and assets of banking companies relate only to areas to which the Act extended, the total of liabilities may not agree with the total of assets. Figures of paid-up capital of banking companies incorporated outside the Indian Union are excluded. For the period 1948 to 1950 'money at call and short notice' is grouped with 'balances with other banks in current account' and 'bills purchased and discounted' are included under 'loans and advances.' For 1951 deposits have been sub-divided into 'from banking companies' and 'others' 'Cash in hand', 'balances with the Reserve Bank', 'balances with the banks in current account' and 'money at call and short notice' have been shown separately. Two more columns have been added to show data separately of 'bills purchased and discounted', and 'loans and advances due from banking companies'; both these items were formerly grouped under 'loans and advances'

Table 7 :—State-wise Distribution of Offices, Deposits and Advances of Scheduled Banks. Table 7 gives statistics of the State-wise distribution of the offices, of deposits and of advances of scheduled banks. It differs from Table 14 which excludes foreign banks.

Tables 8(i), (ii) and (iii) :—Earnings and Expenses of Banks (1947 to 1951). Tables 8(i) and 8(iii) relate, respectively, to Indian scheduled banks, and non-scheduled banks each having paid-up capital and reserves of Rs. 5 lakhs and above. Table 8(ii) relates to the earnings and expenses of exchange banks in respect of their business in the Indian Union. In the case of banks, where the balance sheet and profit and loss account (on the basis of which returns are supplied for the purposes of this publication), covered a period of less than twelve months, annual figures were derived on the basis of available data. In the tables, earnings on bills purchased and discounted are shown separately from those on loans and advances for 1951.

Table 9 :—Liabilities and Assets of Indian Co-operative Banks. Table 9(i), which deals with the years 1930-31 to 1944-45, relates to co-operative banks in undivided India ; and Table 9(ii), which deals with the years 1945-46 to 1950-51 relates to co-operative banks in the Indian Union. The data for these tables were supplied by the Registrars of Co-operative Societies in the several States and refer to the co-operative years in the respective States. For years for which statistics were not available those for the nearest year for which they were available were substituted, and where the total of the balance sheet was not available, the figure of total assets or total liabilities, whichever was higher, was taken.

Table 10 :—Liabilities and Assets of the Several Classes of Banks in the Indian Union. Table 10 brings together for convenience of comparison the data for the past few years as given in Tables 3, 5(ii) and 9 (ii).

Table 11 :—Liabilities and Assets of Indian Joint Stock Banks Classified by Size of Deposits, 1951. It deals with banks included in Table 5 (ii).

Table 13(i) :—Distribution of Offices of the Several Classes of Banks by Population in 1951. Table 13 (i) classifies the branches of the several categories of banks by reference to the population of the places of their location. The population figures were mostly obtained from the regional Census Commissioners and in a few cases from banks themselves; wherever figures for 1951 were not available, 1941 Census figures have been given. Offices situated in places for which population figures were not available are treated as 'unclassified.'

Table 13 (ii) :—Distribution of Banking Offices by Population in the Several States in 1951. Table 13 (ii) gives statistics of the number of banking offices in the several States of the Indian Union by reference to the population of the places of their location.

Tables 15, 16, 17, 18, 19 and 21 embody the results of the surveys conducted by the Reserve Bank of India of deposits, investments and advances of banks. After the Banking Companies Act, 1949 came into force, the data for the surveys were supplied by banks in terms of Section 27(2) of the Act. The first of the present series of these surveys relates to the position as at June 30, 1949; the surveys of advances are quarterly and relate to all joint stock banks; the surveys of investments and deposits are half-yearly and relate to all scheduled banks and a sample of non-scheduled banks. The tables also give the results of the earlier annual surveys of investments and deposits of all scheduled banks.

Tables 15 and 18 (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) :—Ownership of Deposits of Banks. Table 15 gives the results, in summary form, of the surveys of the ownership of deposits of banks from 1945 to 1951. For the 1945 and 1946 surveys the statistics relate to the offices of banks in undivided India and for subsequent surveys to their offices in the Indian Union. The figures relating to demand deposits are not strictly comparable owing to changes in the data collected while figures as at December 31, 1945 and since June 1949 relate to demand deposits only, those from December 1946 to December 1948 include the demand liability part of savings deposits; secondly, while the figures as at December 31, 1945 and December 31, 1946 exclude inter-bank deposits, those from 1947 include them; thirdly, while for the 1945 and 1946 surveys unclassified deposits represented deposits in accounts of less than Rs. 500 of banks having total demand deposits of Rs. 5 crores or above, for subsequent surveys they represented deposits in accounts of less than Rs. 500 of all banks.

Tables 18(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv):—Tables 18(i) and (ii) deal in fuller detail with the ownership of deposits of scheduled banks in the Indian Union and relate to their position as at the end of June and December 1951, respectively; Tables 18 (iii) and (iv) give similar statistics for a sample of non-scheduled banks.

Tables 16 and 21 :—Investments of Banks. The investments covered by the surveys comprise the total investments of Indian banks and the investments against their Indian Union business of foreign banks. Investments in government securities comprise investments in securities (including Treasury bills, Treasury Deposit Receipts and Postal Certificates) of Central and Provincial Governments of undivided India from 1945 to 1947 and thereafter of Central and State Governments (for 1948 and 1949 the latter refer to the Provinces and the Indian States) of the Indian Union. Table 16 gives, in summary form, the more important items of investments of scheduled banks from 1945 to 1951 and of a sample of non-scheduled banks from December 1949 to December 1951. Table 21 gives in summary form particulars of investments of scheduled and a sample of non-scheduled banks under 'government securities,' 'other domestic investments' and 'foreign investments' together with the percentage distribution of each of these types of investments to total investments for the period June 1949 to December 1951.

Tables 17 (i), 17 (ii), and 19(i) to 19(iv) relate to advances including bills discounted and purchased of all banks functioning in the Indian Union. Table 17(i) gives in summary form the figures of advances for each quarter since June 1949 under the main heads classified according to purpose or the principal business of the borrower, while Table 17 (ii) gives information of advances classified according to security. Tables 19(i) and 19(ii) contain a detailed analysis of advances of scheduled banks classified according to purpose and security, respectively, for 1951. Tables 19 (iii) and 19 (iv) give similar classification, according to purpose and security, of advances of non-scheduled banks for 1951.

Table 20 :—Advances of Scheduled Banks against Principal Commodities and Bullion, April 1950 to December 1951. Table 20 shows in summary form the outstanding advances of scheduled banks against principal commodities and bullion as on the last Friday of every month. The data are consolidated from the monthly returns submitted by the scheduled banks under Section 27(2) of the Banking Companies Act, 1949 and relate to their working in the Indian Union. Total advances relate to loans, advances, cash credits and overdrafts but exclude money at call and short notice, due from banks, and bills purchased and discounted, as given in the monthly returns on Form XIII of the Banking Companies Act.

Table 22 :—Interest Allowed by Larger Scheduled Banks on Deposits during 1951. The interest rates on deposits shown in this table relate to 16 scheduled banks, each with deposit liabilities of Rs. 10 crores and above at the close of each quarter in 1951.

Table 23 :—Deposits of Selected Scheduled Banks at Various Rates of Interest during 1951. The data relate to 13 banks, each with deposit liabilities of Rs. 10 crores and above, and are as on the last Friday of the month. The deposit liabilities referred to in columns 16 and 17 of the table relate to net demand and time liabilities, excluding inter-bank borrowings, as reported in the weekly returns under Section 42(2) of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934.

Table 29.—Indian Joint Stock Banks Liquidated in 1951. Table 29 shows the number of joint stock banks which went into voluntary liquidation, or were ordered to be liquidated, or otherwise ceased to function during the year. The data were furnished by the Registrars of Joint Stock Companies. For the years prior to 1948 the statistics relate to undivided India.

Table 31 :—Velocity of Circulation of Deposit Money, 1935 to 1951. Figures upto 1941 relate to India and Burma, those from 1942 to 1948 to undivided India and thereafter to the Indian Union. Demand liabilities relate to the average of weekly demand liabilities of scheduled banks as reported under Section 42(2) of the Reserve Bank of India Act. Figures of cheque clearances relate to the cheques cleared by scheduled banks, State co-operative banks and a few non-scheduled banks. Monthly ratios are expressed at annual rates.

Tables 32, 33 and 34 :—Detailed Tables. Tables 32(i), 32 (iii), 33 and 34 are compiled from the balance sheet figures for each individual bank and relate to their total business including business outside the Indian Union. Tables 32(ii) and 32(iv) relate to the business of foreign banks' offices in the Indian Union as shown in their balance sheets in terms of Section 29(1) of the Banking Companies Act, 1949.

In Table 33, banks with paid-up capital and reserves of less than Rs. 50,000 are excluded. The names of the towns in which the registered offices of the banks are located are shown after them in column 2. Net profits earned during the year are shown in brackets by the side of the balance of profit or loss in column 14. The number of offices of banks outside the Indian Union is shown in brackets by the side of the number of offices in the Indian Union in column 24.

Appendices :—Appendix I gives the names of banks operating in the principal towns of the Indian Union. Banks other than scheduled banks and State co-operative banks are shown in italics. Non-scheduled banks with paid-up capital and reserves below Rs. 50,000, and banks which did not furnish the required data for 1950 and 1951, are omitted. Population figures are shown in brackets against each town. These figures are mainly from the 1951 Census ; in some cases the figures were taken from the 1941 Census Report, and some were supplied by the (former) Provincial or State Governments or banks and relate to years subsequent to 1941. The information in respect of scheduled banks has been brought up to March 31, 1952. The branches which were closed after the date of the balance sheet are indicated with an asterisk. The old names of places are shown in brackets by the side of the new.

Appendix II gives the names of Indian Joint Stock Banks operating in places outside the Indian Union, and Appendix III, the names of the London agents and correspondents of scheduled banks. The names of the members and sub-members of the clearing houses in the Indian Union as at March 31, 1952 are given in Appendix IV.

The names of non-scheduled banks and indigenous bankers, included in the approved list of banks which are entitled to the concessional rates of remittances under the Reserve Bank's scheme of remittance facilities, introduced in October 1940, are given in Appendix V and the rates for remittances in Appendix VI.

Banking Developments

There was an unusual pressure on the resources of commercial banks in India during 1951. A record expansion in the volume of bank credit, on the one hand, and a sizable contraction in deposits, on the other, resulted in a large-scale liquidation of investments. The rising trend in demand and time liabilities* of scheduled banks (as revealed by data compiled from returns under Section 42(2) of the Reserve Bank of India Act) noticed since devaluation and particularly after mid-1950 was arrested in April 1951 ; since then owing principally to a set back in the country's external payments position the trend was reversed, and demand and time liabilities declined by Rs. 43 crores to Rs. 869 crores by the end of the year. The heavy demand for bank credit resulting from a high level of prices coupled with increased economic activity took the scheduled banks' advances and discounts to a new peak of Rs. 586 crores on May 11, 1951, thus recording an expansion of Rs. 180 crores for the 1950-51 busy season. During the ensuing slack season the return of funds to the banking system, relatively to the previous expansion was, unlike in the past, small ; consequently the slack season's low of Rs. 500 crores on October 26, was Rs. 95 crores higher than the seasonal low of 1950. Over the year as a whole advances rose by Rs. 109 crores to Rs. 554 crores. The liquidation of investments in Government securities lowered the ratio of such investments to deposits to 35 per cent as against 42 per cent in the previous year. Government securities held by scheduled banks declined during the year by Rs. 52 crores. Their cash ratio also declined from 14·0 per cent at the end of 1950 to 13·6 per cent at the end of 1951.

The credit inflation in the early part of the year led to the adoption of vigorous measures by the Reserve Bank to prevent any undue expansion of credit in the 1951-52 busy season. The Bank rate was raised on November 15 from 3 to 3½ per cent, and simultaneously open market policy was revised which necessitated that banks replenish their resources during the ensuing busy season by borrowing from the Reserve Bank rather than, as hitherto, by selling Government securities. To impart a degree of elasticity to the money market, a bill scheme was devised which came into effect early in 1952.

* Demand and time liabilities refer to total liabilities less paid-up capital, reserves, credit balances in the profit and loss account and loans from the Reserve Bank of India. Thus demand and time liabilities include, besides demand and time deposits other items such as inter-bank borrowings ('due to other banks'), branch adjustments, unpaid dividends, interest payable, etc.

 A detailed review of banking developments during the year 1951 will be found in the Report on the Trend and Progress of Banking in India, 1951; the coverage of the Statistical Tables relating to Banks in India, 1951 is wider than that of this publication.

* Relate to banks registered in undivided India in 1938 and 1945, and in the Indian Union from 1949 to 1951.

During the year the deposits of joint stock banks and the larger co-operative banks, together, declined by Rs. 26 crores to Rs. 1,011 crores and their loans and discounts rose by Rs. 122 crores to Rs. 701 crores. The fall in deposits of scheduled banks amounted to Rs. 34 crores and of non-scheduled banks to Rs. 3 crores, the deposits of co-operative banks increasing by Rs. 10 crores. The rise in advances was accounted for by all categories of banks—scheduled banks accounting for Rs. 109 crores, non-scheduled banks for Rs. 65 lakhs and co-operative banks for Rs. 13 crores. Scheduled banks, which constitute less than one-tenth of the total number of banks in the Indian Union, accounted for about 83 per cent of the total deposits and about the same percentage of the total advances. Investments in Government securities of scheduled banks declined from Rs. 365 crores in 1950 to Rs. 299 crores in 1951 and those of non-scheduled banks from Rs. 24 crores to Rs. 23 crores. Their cash balances fell, respectively, from Rs. 123 crores to Rs. 115 crores and from Rs. 11 crores to Rs. 10 crores In contrast, co-operative banks' total investments increased from Rs. 29·8 crores to Rs. 30·4 crores, while cash balances remained unchanged at Rs. 12 crores.

The growing importance of co-operative banks relatively to non-scheduled banks in regard to the magnitude of their banking business noticed in recent years was maintained during 1951 also. At the end of 1951 the deposits of co-operative banks amounted to Rs. 100 crores and their advances to Rs. 73 crores. The corresponding deposits and advances of non-scheduled banks were Rs. 69 crores and Rs. 46 crores, respectively (Table A, page xii).

Banking Facilities

The returns submitted by scheduled banks show that the number of their offices in the Indian Union declined during the year by 119 to 2,647. This decline was the net result of a reduction of 155 offices owing to the removal from the Second Schedule of one bank (which had reported last year), an addition of 12 offices of two banks which were scheduled during the year, an increase of 11 in the number of offices of the Imperial Bank of India, a rise of 14 in the offices of other Indian scheduled banks and a decline of one in the offices of foreign scheduled banks. Apart from the effects on branch banking of the removal of banks from, or their addition to, the Second Schedule, the number of offices of scheduled banks increased by 24 during the year. The number of offices of non-scheduled banks declined by 41 to 1,504 at the end of 1951, owing to an increase of 20 in the number of offices of A2 banks and a fall of 18, and 43, respectively, in the number of offices of B, and D banks. The increase in the number of offices of A2 banks and the decline in the offices of B banks reflects mainly the transfer of 7B banks with 45 offices to the category of A2 banks. The decline in the offices of D banks is due to the reduction in the number of reporting banks in 1951, partly because of failure to report and partly because several of them had ceased to function as banking companies. Thus, the number of offices in the Indian Union of all classes of joint stock banks fell by 160 in 1951. The offices of co-operative banks, on the other hand, rose from 725 in 1950 to 837 in 1951 (Table B, page xiv).

Indian banks continued to reduce the number of their offices in Pakistan and to increase them in other countries. During the year, on balance, they closed 24 offices in Pakistan and opened 4 offices in other countries (Table C, page xiv).

About fifty-six per cent of the offices of scheduled banks, the same proportion as in 1950, were in the larger towns and cities having a population of 50,000 and above, and about 65 per cent of the offices of non-scheduled banks (as against 64 per cent in 1950) in the smaller towns. The offices of scheduled banks in the smaller towns were numerically larger than the offices of non-scheduled banks in them. The total number of offices of scheduled and non-scheduled banks operating in larger towns was 1,994 as against 2,130 in 1950. The bias in favour of larger population centres continues. As regards co-operative banks, about 64 per cent of the total number of their offices were in the smaller towns.

The distribution of offices of both commercial and co-operative banks as at the close of 1951 shows that about 46 per cent or 2,296 offices were in 174 towns having a population of 50,000 and above, which represents an average of one banking office per 13,380 of the population of these places, 54 per cent or 2,692 offices were located in 1,395 places having a population of less than 50,000 which yields an average of one banking office for every 6,755 of their population. For all places which are served by a banking office the average ratio of banks to population is one banking office for every 10,137 of the population ; for the Indian Union as a whole, the average ratio is one banking office for every 71,500 of the population.

During 1951, 62 banks (as reported by the Registrars of Joint Stock Companies) either went into voluntary liquidation, were ordered to be liquidated or otherwise ceased to function. Their aggregate paid-up capital was Rs. 2·52 crores.

Capital and Reserves

The paid-up capital and reserves of Indian joint stock banks fell by Rs. 1·2 crores as compared with a decline of Rs. 19 lakhs in 1950 ; while paid-up capital declined by Rs. 1·98 crores, reserves increased by Rs. 77 lakhs. The paid-up capital and reserves of Indian scheduled banks declined over the year by Rs. 68 lakhs to Rs. 61·6 crores and those of non-scheduled banks by Rs. 53 lakhs to Rs. 13·6 crores. On the other hand, the paid-up capital and reserves of co-operative banks rose by Rs. 2·6 crores to Rs. 19·0 crores. The ratio of paid-up capital and reserves to deposits for scheduled and non-scheduled banks remained practically unchanged (8·2 per cent and 19·4 per cent, respectively), while that for co-operative banks rose slightly from 18·3 to 19·0 per cent. The ratio in the case of co-operative banks would have been higher but for a larger increase in deposits as compared to paid-up capital and reserves (Table D, page xiv).

Deposits

The total deposits of joint stock banks in the Indian Union fell in 1951 by Rs. 37 crores to Rs. 911 crores in contrast with a rise of Rs. 25 crores in 1950, owing, almost wholly, to a sharp decline in current deposits, the declines in savings and other deposits being more or less compensated by a rise in fixed deposits. The fall in the deposits of scheduled banks amounted to Rs. 34 crores ; current, savings and other deposits fell by Rs. 32 crores, Rs. 1 crore and Rs. 9 crores, respectively, while fixed deposits rose by Rs. 9 crores. The total deposits of scheduled banks amounted to Rs. 841 crores at the close of 1951 as against Rs. 875 crores a year earlier.

The deposits in the Indian Union of Indian scheduled banks fell by Rs. 29 crores to Rs. 670 crores in contrast with a rise of Rs. 13 crores in 1950. The deposits of foreign scheduled banks also registered a fall of Rs. 5 crores to Rs. 171 crores ; in the previous year they had risen by Rs. 10 crores. The deposits outside the Indian Union, mainly in Pakistan, of Indian scheduled banks registered a rise (for the first time since Partition) of Rs. 23 crores, all classes of deposits contributing to the rise, particularly current deposits (Rs. 19 crores). This rise in deposits probably indicates to a large extent the effect of the resumption of trade with Pakistan following the Indo-Pakistan Trade Agreement of February 1951.

The deposits of non-scheduled banks in the Indian Union declined by Rs. 3 crores to Rs. 69 crores ; current deposits accounted for almost the whole of this decline (Rs. 2·7 crores).

The deposits of co-operative banks showed a further rise of Rs. 10 crores during the year and at the year-end amounted to Rs. 100 crores (Table E, page xvi).

Of banks having deposits of Rs. 1 crore and above in 1951, 51 (38 scheduled banks and 13 non-scheduled banks) or 9 per cent of the number of banks account for 93 per cent of deposits of all Indian joint stock banks ; the eight largest amongst scheduled banks have over 70 per cent of the total deposits. Non-scheduled banks have larger fixed deposits than savings or current deposits (Table 11, page 28). The eight largest among scheduled banks with deposits of over Rs. 25 crores have reserves in excess of their paid-up capital.

The Reserve Bank of India surveys of ownership of deposits disclose that the fall in deposits was mainly under demand deposits and took place almost wholly during the second half of the year. Of the total deposits covered by the survey as at December 1951 (Rs. 822 crores), Rs. 456 crores (56 per cent) were demand deposits, Rs. 135 crores (16 per cent) savings deposits and Rs. 230 crores (28 per cent) time deposits. The ownership pattern of the several types of deposits showed hardly any variation over the past three years. Personal deposits formed the largest share (46 per cent) of the total deposits, business deposits coming next in importance (37 per cent). Personal deposits accounted for almost the entire savings deposits (96 per cent), over half of time deposits (54 per cent) and over a quarter of demand deposits (27 per cent). Business deposits, which sustained by far the larger part of the decline in demand deposits during the year, constituted 52 per cent of demand, 28 per cent of time and a little over 1 per cent of savings deposits.

Cash

The cash balances of scheduled and non-scheduled banks declined during the year as a result of a sharp increase in advances and a fall in deposits. The cash balances of Indian scheduled banks fell from Rs. 103·5 crores to Rs. 89·7 crores and their ratio to deposits from 15 per cent in 1950 to 13 per cent in 1951. In the case of exchange banks, despite a fall in deposits and a rise in advances the cash balances moved up from Rs. 19·2 crores to Rs. 24·9 crores and the cash ratio from 11 per cent to 15 per cent in 1951. For scheduled banks as a whole, the ratio fell from 14·0 per cent in 1950 to 13·6 per cent in 1951. The cash ratio of non-scheduled banks declined from 16 per cent in 1950 to 14 per cent in 1951 ; all classes of non-scheduled banks participated in the decline. The cash ratio of co-operative banks declined from 13 per cent in 1950 to 12 per cent in 1951 (Table F, page xvi).

Investments

Investments of banks also registered a steep fall during the year. Investments of Indian joint stock banks fell by Rs. 61 crores ; in the previous year they had risen by Rs. 19 crores. Co-operative banks' investments rose by Rs. 58 lakhs as compared with a rise of Rs. 1·5 crores in 1950. Investments of Indian scheduled banks declined by Rs. 59 crores to Rs. 302 crores during the year ; the fall occurred in the first half of the year and mainly under Government securities ; the ratio of their investments to deposits declined from 48 per cent in 1950 to 40 per cent in 1951. Investments of non-scheduled banks registered a decline of Rs. 1½ crores of which Rs. 1 crore was under Government securities; the ratio of their investments to deposits declined from 39·3 to 38·7 per cent. In the case of co-operative banks, although their investments showed a rise of Rs. 58 lakhs, their ratio to deposits declined from 33 per cent to 30 per cent (Tables G and H, page xviii).

The Reserve Bank of India surveys of investments disclose that the fall in Government securities of scheduled banks over the year was mainly in securities maturing within five years (Rs. 38 crores) and those maturing after 15 years (Rs. 22 crores); a rise of Rs. 62 crores in short-mediums (securities maturing between 5 and 10 years) was more or less entirely offset by a decline in medium-longs (securities maturing in 10—15 years). Investments in Government securities represented 85 per cent of the total investments at the end of December 1951 as compared with 88 per cent a year earlier. Investments of scheduled banks in other than Government securities amounted to Rs. 52 crores at the end of 1951, of which Rs. 25 crores were in foreign investments, Rs. 13 crores in shares and debentures of joint stock companies, Rs. 8 crores in trustee securities, Rs. 5 crores in real estate and the remainder in bullion, fixed deposits, etc.

Investments of non-scheduled banks in Government securities showed a small decline of Rs. 44 lakhs, almost the whole of which occurred among A2 banks. The other investments of non-scheduled banks also showed a slight decline of Rs. 18 lakhs. Investments of non-scheduled banks constituted 37 per cent of their deposits in December 1951 as compared with 39 per cent a year earlier.

Loans and Advances

Loans and advances of scheduled banks, including foreign bills discounted and purchased, showed a record expansion of Rs. 109 crores to Rs. 581 crores (Table I, page xviii) during 1951, their ratio to deposits also rising from 54 per cent to 69 per cent. In the case of Indian scheduled banks, loans and advances rose by Rs. 70 crores to Rs. 407 crores and their ratio to deposits also moved up from 48 per cent to 61 per cent. In the case of foreign scheduled banks, the rise amounted to Rs. 39 crores. Their ratio of advances to deposits increased sharply from 77 per cent to 102 per cent; in the context of decline in deposits and rise in cash balances this would indicate that there was an inflow of funds from abroad.

The rise in loans and advances of Indian scheduled banks' offices abroad, noticed last year, continued, the rise during the year, however, being small at Rs. 5 crores. In view of the steep increase in deposits, the ratio of advances to deposits declined from 59 per cent to 48 per cent.

In the case of non-scheduled banks, loans and advances showed a nominal rise of Rs. 1 crore to Rs. 46 crores, their ratio also moving up from 63 per cent to 67 per cent.

Loans and advances of co-operative banks showed a sharp rise of Rs. 13 crores in 1951 in contrast with a nominal fall of Rs. 49 lakhs a year earlier. The ratio of advances to deposits moved up from 68 per cent to 73 per cent.

The quarterly surveys of advances conducted by the Bank show that the increase in loans and advances over the year was shared by industry and commerce in the proportion of 2 : 3, other categories claiming negligible proportions. The broad pattern of distribution of advances remained the same as in 1949 and 1950. At the end of 1951, commerce continued to account for the bulk (53 per cent) of the total advances, industry for 33 per cent, personal and professional advances for 7 per cent, others for 4 per cent and agriculture for 2 per cent. A classification of advances according to security shows that merchandise accounted for one-half of the total advances, shares for one-eleventh and Government securities for one-twelfth. Unsecured advances formed 11 per cent of the total.

Among loans and advances of non-scheduled banks, the share of commerce was 40-45 per cent ; personal and professional advances which came next accounted for 26-28 per cent and advances to industry 16-18 per cent. Security-wise, advances against merchandise formed 18-23 per cent, those against bullion including ornaments 17-20 per cent and real estate 20-21 per cent of the total. Unsecured advances of non-scheduled banks formed about 21-24 per cent.

Earnings and Expenses

The current earnings of Indian scheduled banks rose by Rs. 3·24 crores to Rs. 32·21 crores in 1951, and their expenses by Rs. 2·09 crores to Rs. 23·89 crores, the substantial increases in 1951 reflecting a larger volume of business, higher interest rates and increased establishment charges. Their net current earnings, rose (for the first time since 1946) by Rs. 1·15 crores to Rs. 8·32 crores. Net profits, in contrast to a sharp decline of Rs. 1·30 crores in 1950, rose by Rs. 93 lakhs to Rs. 7·51 crores in 1951. The current earnings of the fifteen exchange banks increased from Rs. 9·41 crores in 1950 to Rs. 13·02 crores in 1951 and their expenses from Rs. 5·92 crores in 1950 to Rs. 7·21 crores in 1951. Net profits of these banks rose by Rs. 2·20 crores to Rs. 5·54 crores as against a fall of Rs. 1·24 crores in the previous year. As regards non-scheduled banks, despite a reduction in their number, current earnings and expenses rose by Rs. 9 lakhs and Rs. 10 lakhs, respectively, as against a fall of Rs. 32 lakhs and Rs. 16 lakhs, respectively, in 1950. Their net profits fell by Rs. 3 lakhs, compared with a fall of Rs. 17 lakhs in 1950.

In contrast to the declining trend in 1950, earnings from loans and bills of Indian scheduled banks which form more than half of total earnings, rose by Rs. 3 crores to Rs. 18·16 crores in 1951 and constituted about 56 per cent of the total earnings. The increase in earnings from this source was in the main due to a large expansion in the volume of credit extended and partly due to an increase in interest rates. Interest earned on Government securities which came next in importance fell during the year by Rs. 1·37 crores or by 7 points from 28 to 21 per cent of total earnings. The average yield on their holdings of Government securities was 2·5 per cent as compared with 2·6 per cent in 1950. Earnings from all other sources increased from 20 per cent in 1950 to 23 per cent in 1951. Earnings from loans and bills of exchange banks registered a rise of Rs. 2·52 crores and constituted 68 per cent of their total earnings. Their income from Government securities, unlike that in the case of Indian scheduled banks, rose slightly by Rs. 3 lakhs to Rs. 1,21 lakhs but expressed as a percentage of total earnings, declined from 13 per cent to 9 per cent in 1951. Earnings of non-scheduled banks from loans and bills as a proportion to total earnings rose from 71 per cent in 1950 to 73 per cent in 1951. Their earnings from investments in Government securities declined by Rs. 4 lakhs and as a percentage of total earnings fell from 17 per cent in 1950 to 14 per cent in 1951.

The rising trend in establishment expenses noticed during the past few years continued during 1951. In 1951, these absorbed about Rs. 12 crores or 37 per cent of the total earnings of Indian scheduled banks, as compared to Rs. 11 crores or 39 per cent in 1950. The rise in establishment expenses reflects, in the main, the full impact of the higher emoluments paid to the staff under the Bank Award of 1950. Interest paid to depositors by Indian scheduled banks rose by Rs. 51 lakhs to Rs. 6·8 crores; the increase may be attributed partly to the rise in deposit rates and partly to an increase in fixed deposits. The establishment expenses of exchange banks rose by Rs. 34 lakhs to Rs. 3·41 crores in 1951, but as a percentage of total earnings these declined from 33 to 26 per cent. Interest paid by exchange banks to depositors rose during the year by Rs. 28 lakhs to Rs. 102 lakhs and constituted 8 per cent of total earnings as compared to 21 per cent in the case of Indian scheduled banks. The establishment expenses of non-scheduled banks, despite a reduction in their number, rose from Rs. 50 lakhs in 1950 to Rs. 53 lakhs in 1951.

The ratio of current operating expenses (i.e., expenses excluding allowance for depreciation and loss incurred in sale of assets), to total earnings (i.e., earnings excluding recoveries on assets previously written down) declined from 75·3 per cent in 1950 to 74·1 per cent in 1951 in the case of Indian scheduled banks, and from 62·9 per cent in 1950 to 55·4 per cent in 1951 in the case of exchange banks; but for non-scheduled banks, it rose from 80·8 per cent in 1950 to 82·6 per cent in 1951. The ratio of net profits to total earnings of Indian scheduled banks remained steady at the level of 1950 (23 per cent); the ratio for exchange banks, rose from 36 per cent in 1950 to 43 per cent in 1951 and for non-scheduled banks, it declined from 14 per cent to 12 per cent.

With the increase in net profits, the amount set aside for dividends and for bonus to staff by Indian scheduled banks increased during the year by Rs. 4 lakhs to Rs. 2·50 crores and by Rs. 6 lakhs to Rs. 1·07 crores, respectively. However, expressed as ratios of net profits these were lower at 33 per cent and 14 per cent in 1951 as compared with 37 per cent and 15 per cent, respectively, in 1950. An outstanding feature of the distribution of net profits was a three-fold rise, from Rs. 1·16 crores in 1950 to Rs. 4·41 crores in 1951, in the allocations to special purposes, to provide inter alia against a sharp fall in the value of investments after the raising of the Bank rate in November 1951. Allocations to general reserves declined during the year by Rs. 5 lakhs to Rs. 59 lakhs. The amount carried forward to next year's account declined from Rs. 53 lakhs in 1950 to Rs. 18 lakhs in 1951.

The amount allocated by exchange banks for bonus to staff recorded a small increase of Rs. 2·6 lakhs. Provision made for taxation during the year was almost twice that for 1950. The allocation of net profits to special purposes, as in the case of Indian scheduled banks, rose from Rs. 10 lakhs to Rs. 15 lakhs. In the case of non-scheduled banks, dividends to share-holders declined from 38 per cent of net profits in 1950 to 35 per cent in 1951 while bonus to staff increased from 9 per cent in 1950 to 10 per cent in 1951. The declining trend in the provision for taxes and allocations to general reserves by these banks continued, the former falling to Rs. 6·8 lakhs (29·8 per cent of net profits) and the latter to Rs. 5·4 lakhs (24 per cent of net profits) in 1951.

Considerable assistance has been received from the Registrars of Joint Stock Companies, the Registrars of Co-operative Societies and from banks in compiling this publication and the Reserve Bank of India thanks them for their co-operation.
