

Most of the information placed in public domain since August 1997, is available in electronic form on RBI website. This includes notifications, press releases, publications and reports published by the Bank.